[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., July 1.—The champions took the lead of the race today by defeating Richmond in a hotly contested game by the score of 4 to 3.

Carter, the erstwhile Shoemaker, was hammered for three earned runs, one of them being a home run by Bentley over Titman's head in the fifth, and he was relieved by Salve, who held the locals well in hand.

Stewart was hit on his pitching arm in the sixth by a foul tip, and he had to retire in favor of Oakley, who held the Colts safe. Stewart's injury will keep him out of the game for two weeks at least. Both teams played brilliant ball.

The errors at third were responsible for the first two runs, but the best ball figure in the score, a triple by Hoffman in the sixth, followed by a base on balls to Wallace and singles by Cowan and Shaffer, scored two runs. Shaffer probably played the best ball of the game, and it was his stick work that drove in all of their runs.

The work of Umpire Hoffman elicited kicks from both teams, and he was off on a number of close decisions. Once he lost his temper and swore in a tone of voice that persons in the rear seat of the grandstand heard what was said. This came nearer than anything ever before heard in sending the fans over the fence after the umpire. The score:

In response to the demand for a Savings Bank of great strength, the First National Bank of Richmond, Va., with capital, profits and stockholders' liability aggregating $2,750,000.00, has opened a Savings Department, issuing books, allowing three per cent. interest.

TIM FLOOD. First ball-player to do time for talking back to an umpire. A Toronto Justice recently sentenced Flood, formerly of Brooklyn, now captain of Toronto, to fifteen days' imprisonment for talking back to an umpire in a recent game. This is the first instance of the kind on record.

DANVILLE SWAMPS THE MARY JANE GETTIG INJURED IN FIRST GAME

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, Va., July 1.—Jordan proved very ineffective against the local sluggers today, and his support was very poor. As a result, in the first six innings of play, Danville landed for thirteen runs, made off of twelve hits and four errors. Bertrand then relieved Jordan, and the locals did not reach first base after this.

Lavender was on the firing line for the locals and Norfolk could not score until sixth, when, with a lead of thirteen runs, Lavender let down.

The game proved to be slow and uninteresting. In the fifth inning eleven men batted for Danville, and eleven hits and two errors netted the locals eight runs. Ryan, the first catcher used by the locals, hit for three singles, all of which figured in the run-getting. Doyle, second, played a star fielding game for the locals, while Hines got all kinds of throws at the initial sack. Cummings made a great catch in right-field.

TRUCKERS LOSE TO THE ROANOKES

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., July 1.—Roanoke defeated the Truckers today in the first game of the series by the score of 8 to 6. Shuman did the twirling for the Truckers, and kept Roanoke down in the first few hits, but the visitors were in for victory, and took the game without a flaw.

Vermelle pitched a great game, and allowed only three hits. A light shower fell just before the beginning of the game, and the outlook for a post-game was bright, but J. Plunius passed by and the game was on. There was a large crowd present.

Roanoke played an errorless game. Several great plays were made, among them being a double by Moss to Havenner, a single by Shuman, and a strike out by Vermelle. Shuman struck out four. The score:

BURNS VS. SQUIRES ON NEXT THURSDAY
Next Thursday afternoon, in Colma, Cal., the first big international heavyweight battle in America since Mitchell and Corbett in Jacksonville on January 25, 1904, will be decided.

The bout marks the first American appearance of Bill Squires, of Australia, who has defeated everybody in his class in kangaroo-land. He has for his opponent, Noah Brusso, the French Canadian, who fights under the name of Tommy Burns.

They meet for forty-five rounds, which is virtually a finish fight, and the man that Referee Jim Jeffries names winner will probably draw the real champion out of retirement.

The measurements of the fighters: Burns, 5'11 1/2 in., 175 lb., 17 1/2 in. chest, 44 in. arm, 34 in. waist, 14 1/2 in. hip, 12 1/2 in. forearm, 11 3/4 in. wrist, 7 1/2 in. thigh, 22 1/2 in. calf, 18 1/2 in. leg, 9 in. foot, 8 1/2 in. shoe.

Conditions of match: Contest takes place July 4th, 2 P. M., 45 rounds, international championship. Each man has up $5,000 side bet. Fight for 60 per cent. gross receipts, to be divided 60 and 40. Burns guaranteed $8,000, win, lose or draw. James J. Jeffries, referee, selected at the time articles were drawn up.
